Black Strap Molasses

one offs

Skiffs, dug outs, house boats; flotillas of vice. Brothels, boardrooms, traders awash in rum. This is black strap molasses; " the 'ol Black Strap", the thickest, darkest and sweetest of them all. Cane sugar's "black honey"...currency of the times.

Shine your shoes, shake off the blues. A good clean shirt, some reels and jigs, a fiddle, a banjo; these belong on walls from kitchen to bedroom to back table game rooms.

Inspired by the Caribbean Gulf, made whole in Oakland.

glimmering in a drop

The Black Strap Molasses series evolved from my orbital drawings which I started a couple of years ago.

While my orbital drawings are weightless floating spheres of a micro or macro cosmos, these new drawings are volumous and swimming in the realm of a deep sugary and shiny molasses.
